Re: Retention of Our Law Firm

Dear Mr. Eisner

It is with pleasure getting to speak with you today regarding our firm's willingness to perform certain legal services described below. Subject to the terms herein set forth, it is our understanding that our engagement as your attorney is for the purpose of representing Reliable Galvanizing Company ("Reliable") in the matters relating to its financial predicament. At this time the Reliable's management is considering the likelihood of commencing a voluntary Chapter 7 or Chapter 11 bankruptcy proceeding which may can commenced in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Illinois (the "Legal Services").

Rendering the Legal Services, it is important that both the attorney and the client understand the terms of the engagement and what each anticipates from the other. It is our understanding and expectation that the following will be applicable to the lawyer/client relationship between us unless subsequently provided to the contrary in writing:

1. Scope and Assignment of Duties. At this point in time, the scope of our duties will include the Company's representation with regard to representing advising on the benefits of either Chapter in relationship to obtaining the best possible return to creditors under the circumstance that will then be in play with regard to the possible sale of the Company's assets. We will be responsible for the preparation and the filing of the initial petition, bankruptcy schedules, other required filings that may arise, the negotiations with creditors and attendance at required creditors meetings, the development and filing of a plan of reorganization, if necessary, and the attendant filings through the plan confirmation process and other generally required matters during the case pendency, We will attempt deliver these services in an efficient manner whenever possible. This engagement does not include services which may require representation in adversary proceedings which must be agreed upon separately, if that need shall arise.

2. Termination of Engagement. You may terminate our engagement for any reason, whatsoever, upon written notice to us. Upon termination and upon payment of our fees, we will deliver to you such of your papers and property as you request; however, we will retain our own files. You will be expected to pay any costs which we may reasonably incur on your behalf. Termination of our services will not affect your responsibility to pay for our legal services rendered and all out of pocket disbursements incurred up to the date of termination and for the purpose of delivering your files to you.

3. Charges. We will normally charge for services based upon the type of services rendered and the reasonable value of those services. Although time is the primary consideration, other factors, including time limitations imposed by you or your circumstances, the novelty and difficulty of the questions, the experience, reputation and ability of the lawyer performing those services, the amount involved, the results obtained and other considerations may affect the charge for our services. However, as is the custom in our area of practice, we will hereby request an advance retainer of $5,000.00, the unused portion of which shall be applied against the fees to be charged in either Chapter 7 or retainer in a Chapter 11. Those fees shall be agreed upon when the decision is reached upon the track to be followed.

4. Arbitration. In the event of a conflict between us with respect to the Legal Services or the billings and charges therefore, including but not limited to claims of errors or omissions, the same shall be submitted to binding arbitration in Chicago, Illinois, pursuant to the Rules of the America Arbitration Association.

Depending on which Chapter is ultimately employed it will be necessary for you to sign another retainer agreement to be filed with court. Its terms are intended to be similar to those contained in this letter

We are most pleased to have the opportunity to represent you. If this letter accurately confirms your understanding and agreement of the terms of our engagement, please so signify the same by executing a copy of this letter and returning it to us along with the payment of the requested retainer and we will commence our work and research of the law.
